

King Edward VII Academy

BASIC EXPECTATIONS FOR ALL STUDENTS

- All students must always be in correct uniform. Anyone who isn't in correct uniform without an explanatory note from home that day will have a 60 minute working detention that day after school
- Learning will not be interrupted by any poor behaviour. Students will be removed from class if they interrupt learning and have a 60 minute working detention that day after school
- Students who behave poorly at social time or between lessons will have a 60 minute working detention that day after school
- Mobile phones and headphones can be used at break and lunchtime. If they are seen or heard at any other time, the student will have a 60 minute working detention at the end of the day. The phone/headphones are confiscated until the end of the day
- We will not accept any rudeness or defiance. This behaviour will be severely punished
